Reports

A. Minutes-Approved.

B. Student Report-Luke reported that upcoming events are: Staff Appreciation Week, elections of officers for next year, talent show called The Spotlight May 23, the junior class project May 19 and induction of new Student Government officers May 24 at Seamen's Inn Restaurant in Mystic. The junior class project is: Hosting a Special Olympics here at SHS on Saturday, May 19. Classes are having assemblies this week to learn about how students can volunteer at the event. B. Morrone said there is a core of 8 junior girls working very hard to make this a success.

C. BOE Report-G. Macdonald stated the subcommittee is working on the wording of the Drug and Alcohol policy. This policy will be for all co-curricula activities.

D. Budget-G. MacDonald stated the vote is slated for Tuesday, May 1 from noon to 8 p.m. Reminder signs will be posted in the schools and on the outside sign at SHS. C. Sartor will check about the flyers going home with students.

E. Y-BLOCK-P. Jeffrey not present.

F. Comcast-S. Murphy says he has a meeting with Clint Kennedy regarding the equipment allocated in the budget. He stated how the equipment is used a lot and it is expensive to repair it.

G. SBIT Youth Council-G. MacDonald brought this to the attention of the BOE who thought it should be backed by the SBIT. M. McKee would like to have BOE members and himself attend CIA classes and ask for input from students of upcoming issues. S. Murphy reminded Gail that AP Government class should be included in this also.
